The Company has classified the shareholders who were allotted shares prior to public issue in year 1996 as promoters. All the Shareholders classified as promoters are not close relatives or associates of present directors who are managing the company. Management is making efforts to contact such persons and asking them to demat the shares however all promoters could not be contacted or have not dematted the shares. Company however undertakes to pursue the matter on best efforts basis. It is suggested that the company be allowed to reclassify the same as Public category since they are not associated with the working of the company or are not immediate relatives of the present management of the company.
